

Vimpex Limited - GDPR Privacy Statement

We respect your privacy and will not sell, rent or loan any identifiable information collected via our websites or directly via email or other electronic communication.

Any information that you give us will be treated with the utmost care, respect and security. It will not be used in ways to which you have not consented. If you consent, from time to time Vimpex Limited or Vimpex Interguard AB ('Vimpex') may use your registration details to provide you with information about other products and services that may be of interest to you.

Any marketing, product or company communication which does not form part of a general sales enquiry, sales activity or response to an enquiry will give the option to 'unsubscribe' from unsolicited emails.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "James Jones", written over a horizontal dotted line.

James Jones

Managing Director

GDPR Privacy Statement May 2018